

Teegan Brumbaugh IBCA Memorial Scholarship

Teegan was a 2014 Churubusco High School graduate who was recently killed in a tragic farming accident. He was an energetic, kind, funny and hardworking young man who was beloved by his family and numerous friends. Teegan was an active 10-year Noble County 4-H member. He showed livestock at county, state, and national levels, was a junior leader for six years, and held several club officer positions over the years. His greatest 4-H achievement was winning Grand Champion market steer at the 2013 Indiana State Fair. Teegan also ran track, excelled at football, and was a member of Sugar Grove Church of God. He attended Ivy Tech University and was majoring in agriculture.
